

[2022-01-04] Scholarship at Stanford University for Joanna Jaworek-Korjakowska

Another great success in our team! Dr hab. inż. Joanna Jaworek-Korjakowska received a scholarship in the IV Edition of a Bekker Programme run by NAWA (Polish National Agency for Academic Exchange). She will be doing a three-month long research project in one of the most prestigious institutions in the world - Stanford University, USA. You can read more about the Bekker Programme here
